Emotional Sobriety: 16 week rotating open study group which fosters in-depth discussions that translate the 12 Steps from abstract ideas to practical actions that can be applied to daily living. Moving from "doing the steps" to "living the steps" is the secret to developing the fit spiritual condition necessary for a daily reprieve from addiction. This conversation illuminates how the 12 Steps work together and will use experiences that are occurring in the lives of participants to translate these ideas into action.

FRIDAYS

Art Expression Fridays: Join us for a night of drawing, painting, and bracelet beading as well as other kinds of art and creative expression. A method of stress management.

Tai Chi Gung: Learn the ancient system of tai chi gung, dating back over 3,000 years. Tai Chi Gung combines slow, deliberate movements, meditation, and breathing exercises. Held each Friday at 6:30pm.

Creative Journaling: Exploring different ways to journal through prompts and styles, we'll spend an hour delving into ourselves through creative means. Each week a new prompt and style will be explored to combat those times we don't know what to write. Come for the creativity; leave with self-discovery.

Community Living Group: A monthly discussion about how to cope with challenges we may face while living in sober housing, community residences or long-term in-patient programs.

SATURDAYS

Overeaters Anonymous: "Overeaters Anonymous (OA) is a community of people who support each other in order to recover from compulsive eating and food behaviors. We welcome everyone who feels they have a problem with food."

Recovery Dharma: Recovery Dharma offers an approach to recovery based on Buddhist principles. Our program is peer-led and non-theistic. We welcome all those who wish to pursue recovery as part of our community.

Men's Support Group: Starting May 20th! A weekly discussion group about being a man as it relates to life today, covering all topics (sobriety, codependency, gender roles, etc)

Narcotics Anonymous: "NA is a nonprofit fellowship or society of men and women for whom drugs had become a major problem. We are recovering addicts who meet regularly to help each other stay clean. This is a program of complete abstinence from all drugs. There is only one requirement for membership, the desire to stop using. We suggest that you keep an open mind and give yourself a break. Our program is a set of principles written so simply that we can follow them in our daily lives. The most important thing about them is that they work."
